PREFATORY NOTE

M. JACQUES SELIGMANN of Paris, in placing his private collection of the famous French master Degas in our hands for Unrestricted Public Sale,—and never before in this country has there been offered at Public Sale a collection of equal importance—does so because of the following reasons, as set forth in his letter of instruction to us: “The principal reason is that I have been unable to carry out my plan of building a gallery in connection with my country house in which I could display modern pictures because of the scarcity of building materials and labor, and the almost prohibitive cost of such a building; furthermore, modern pictures do not fit in with the antiquities in my ‘Ancien Hôtel Sagan.’ Consequently, I have decided to sell my collection of the works of the great master Degas in the United States and under your management.

“I enclose you certificates from Messrs. Durand-Ruel, Bernheim and Vollard, because I know that they will be of great interest.”

PARIS, May 17, 1920.

M. JACQUES SELIGMANN,
57 rue Saint-Dominique,
Paris.

Dear Sir: We have again seen with pleasure the 71 paintings, pastels and drawings by Degas, which you intend to forward to America, and which come from the sale of the Degas studio; it is likely that we shall never again see in France these beautiful art treasures by Degas; as a souvenir, we shall have only the reproductions, for they were all photographed for the printing of the catalogues. On this point, we can give you some information which may be of use to you later on; all the paintings, pastels, and drawings were appraised and photographed immediately (i.e. after the artist's death) by common consent between the Degas family and the experts, in order to prevent their being touched up later on; the works are just as they were done by Degas.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) DURAND-RUEL.

PARIS, May 28, 1920.

TO MONSIEUR JACQUES SELIGMANN, Paris.

Dear Sir: I hear that you intend holding a sale in America of the magnificent collection by Degas which come from the sale (held of his works) after the painter's death.

For those who know art and paintings only from reproductions made for catalogues, what a revelation this will be! [Pour ceux qui ne connaissent les arts & œuvres que par la reproduction qui en a été fait au catalogue, quelle révélation ce va (être)!] These (works) are among the finest works by Degas!

Sincerely,

(Signed) VOLLARD.

We, the undersigned, affirm that we know the pastels, paintings, drawings of Degas belonging to M. Jacques Seligmann, that they were purchased, after decease, from the Degas studio in 1918, sales at which we were the experts, and we affirm that they are indeed the originals by Degas, painted by him and never retouched.

(Signed) BERNHEIM JEUNE & Co.,
experts at the Court of Appeals.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.
